LAUGHTER IS GOOD

What does a pirate say on his 80th birthday?

“Aye, Matey!”

Little Anne came running into the house after school one day, shouting, “Daddy! Daddy! I got 100 in school today!”

“That’s great sweetheart!” said her daddy.

“Come into the living room and tell me about it,” daddy continued.

Little Anne said, “Well, I got 50 in spelling, 30 in math and 20 in science.”

FYI: There is to be a security system installed in all of the buildings. Re-assessment for need of a key will be made at this time. If you have a key to enter any building, you need to check with the office before you use your key. The system is being put in for safety reasons. If you have a key and feel that you have no need for it, please return to office.

Do you want to be a Server? Everyone who has made their First Communion is eligible and welcome to serve. There is going to be a training session on October 14th after Mass for anyone who might be interested in becoming a Server of the Lord. Please call the office to let them know if you are interested. This is to insure that enough materials are available.

Ladies Auxiliary: Ladies will meet on October the 9th at 7:00 p.m. in the Religious Education Building. The theme for the meeting will be “Game of Saints.” Come and join the ladies for an evening of fun and mystery. All ladies of the parish are welcome to join. We will be discussing several upcoming events. Refreshments will be served.

Liturgical Ministers: Please pick up your new schedule for October and November. If you should happen to a conflict in schedule, please inform the office or make arrangements for someone to cover your time.

Memorial Service will be held here at St. Benignus on November 4, 2018, for all souls who have passed away since November 1, 2017. There are forms in the back of church by the bulletins that you may fill out to have your loved one remembered. Forms need to be returned by October 28, 2018. Please place the completed form in the collection basket.

FUNNY WEDDING PICS #5

SERMON FOR TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY

God wants marriages to last. God knows that a lot of good people get divorced, yet that is not His will. To those in Church today who are divorced, please know that God still loves you because there is nothing that can separate God's love from you (Romans 8:39). On October 6th, 1946, my parents got married. Seventy-two years later, they are still married. Their journey together had joys and laughter, but not always. There were also misunderstandings, arguments, disappointments and challenges that occur when two people are together that long. I want to share my mother's vision of why their marriage lasted. Over the years, she would share these little gems of wisdom. As I recall them now, I realize she was basing her marriage on the seven virtues we all should live by. My mother is no theologian. She only went to the seventh grade. Yet she treasured in her heart life's important lessons. I now offer her teachings on what makes a good marriage.

1. "No matter how bad things got, I always tried to find the good and make it happen." PRUDENCE
2. "I gave your dad respect because I owed that to him." JUSTICE
3. "Taking care of your father and raising kids wasn't easy. I quickly learned to iron his shirt while changing your diaper. I found the strength to do it because that's what I had to do." COURAGE
4. "Sometimes money was tight. I had to go without so you kids could have the school clothes you needed. Dad and I sacrificed together. He worked overtime and I got by with old clothes with sewn patches." TEMPERANCE
5. "I believed in your father even when he made no sense." FAITH
6. "I want only joy for my family. I don't need anything else." HOPE
7. I asked my mom one day, "Knowing what you know now, would you marry dad all over again?" She responded, "Of course I would. I love him." LOVE

On their 72nd anniversary, my 93-year-old Dad will get in his car and make the 10-mile trip to visit his 95-year-old wife at Otterbein Nursing Home. He will feed her cake, clean her face, hold her hand and watch TV. When you're this age, they consider this a wild party. Life was not always a party for them, but they sure made it last.....
